

I do not wish to have LPFM take priority over current FM translator services, such as K-LOVE. This is an important service to the local communities. Such a "free to everyone" Christian broadcasting is an important outreach ministry to the community. I believe that the moral fiber of the local community is blessed by the words and music of K-LOVE radio stations.